Dead Girl's Chum Deal State's Case a Blow; Denies Orpet Sent Drug to His Former Sweetheart

Waukegan, Ill., June 13.—Josephine Davis, Marian Lambert's chum, upon whom the State largely relied in accusing Will Orpet of murdering Marian, shattered the State's case today by testifying:

"Before that interview I was so nervous, a sorry, so partial, that I could not give fair testimony. My mother told me I was too much under the influence of the prosecution. I wanted to do everything to harm the boy and nothing that would help him. I was under the prosecution, but influence was too strong over me that time."

Her statements before the coroner, her statements before the Grand Jury, her statements made "eight or ten times" to Mr. Dady, the State's attorney, and the county were exposed one by one. The coroner then turned forth from Attorney Joselyn for the State, but as fast as they rolled they

DELEGATES FROM KENTUCKY IN CRASH

Owensboro, Ky., June 12. — Kentucky's delegation to the Democratic National Convention at St. Louis were badly shaken up early today when a passenger train on the Louisville & St. Louis road was derailed near here. In the party were Governor Stanley and former Governor McCreery.

Crews in Final Trials Coaches Are Satisfied

Two time rows will wind up speed work on the river. Harvard is pretty satisfied with its record-breaking trial last Saturday night when it averaged 43 seconds per mile in 43 minutes 43 second, but wishes to prove that the crew has not stopped back in form and will therefore be able to do it in the Harvard camp this week.

It is Midlandport is not regarded as anything that will prevent his rowing for more than a day or two. He has a cold and sore throat due to the long continued cold and raw weather which has enveloped the training camp.
